Thassos Snow White is considered to be the whitest marble on Earth.

It is a white marble of a bright crystal colour, suitable for luxury constructions thanks to its highly shiny surface finish. Reflecting the sunlight more than any other marble, it is considered ideal for use in warm countries.

Thassos marble has left its imprint on emblematic sculptures and monuments over the centuries, while it remains timeless, elegant, "fresh" and very popular in construction projects around the world.

Some of the modern projects that have used Thassos Snow White marble include "The Surf Club- Four Seasons in Miami USA", "Pomegranate 5* Resort Spa in Chalkidiki Greece", "Mall 28 in Baku Azerbaijan", "Grand Mosque in Abu Dhabi", "Carlton Hotel in Monaco", "Dubai Mall in Dubai".

The name Snow White is a reference to its colour, while Thassos is the name of the Greek island where this marble has been extracted from the ancient times until today.
